GHANA- SUSTAINABLE CHANGE

Wednesday, October 23, 2013, 5:00PM - 7:00PM

The 2014 Ghana program is entitled "Sustainable Change". There is a prevalent need for effective planning in Africa today. The time is now to face issues such as rapid urbanization, quickly growing informal settlements and the need for quality basic services such as clean water, sanitation, sustainable energy production and more. While Ghana is on track to meet the United Nations Millennium Development Goals by 2015, the country is not exempt from these issues. The purpose of this program is to provide culturally sensitive localized district planning to assist the Offinso North District in meeting the challenges of population growth. Our approach focuses on working hand-in-hand with the community.

CULTURE, SOCIETY & HISTORY OF SOUTH AFRICA

Thursday, September 19, 2013, 12:00PM - 1:00PM

In May 2014, students will embark on a rich cultural journey across Zimbabwe and South Africa. The program will take students to major sites of cultural and historical importance that have played a significant role in the history and politics of their time and reflect the general social context of life in Southern Africa. Both countries offer unparalleled intellectual and cultural opportunities to deepen students' knowledge of African history, society and culture. Zimbabwe provides unique examples of human migration patterns, native cultures and customs, and vibrant natural landscapes. South Africa will offer experiences with the European colonization of Africa and insights into innovative attempts to resolve conflicts among the various races, linguistic groups, and social classes that have commanded the world's attention over the past decade. Lectures, excursions, projects and a variety of field experiences will mark a truly unique educational and cultural immersion experience.

MOROCCO GLOBAL MAY

Friday, October 04, 2013, 3:00PM - 4:00PM

Ohio State's Global May programs share common features, but explore the history and culture of very different countries: Brazil, Britain, China, Hungary, Mexico and Uganda. At a Global May information session, you'll learn all about these four-week programs, designed for first and second year students of any major. This session will feature a spotlight on the Morocco Global May program, but all seven programs will be discussed. Come to an information session to learn more about Global May, and think about where next May will take you.

UGANDA GLOBAL MAY

Thursday, November 7, 2013, 3:00PM-4:00PM

The East African country of Uganda is characterized by the beauty and resilience of its natural landscape as well as that of the people who live there. How Ugandans have sought their livelihoods, developed their culture, and pursued peace, security and prosperity in their lives will be the focus of this three week program. Rural health, education, agriculture, the environment and tourism will be explored from bases in Kamuli and Jinja towns, east of Kampala, as well as in the northern town of Gulu, where students will learn about the roots and legacies of conflict in Northern Uganda. All the programs above will promote engagement with many representatives of Ugandan society: educators, professionals, artists, politicians, students, activists and others who advocate for Ugandans' human security.
